Resolution 97-10. A Resolution of Appreciation for President C. D. Spangler, Jr.

Whereas President C. D. Spangler, Jr., has shown unwavering strength of purpose and commitment to The University of North Carolina, firmly defending The University through times of challenge in state and nation, and

Whereas President Spangler has led significant efforts such as the University Bonds Campaign and has contributed through his own resources to such needs as endowed professorships, and

Whereas President Spangler has advocated such abiding values as academic freedom and has consistently endeavored to improve such conditions of work as faculty compensation, and

Whereas President Spangler has sustained a long UNC tradition of honesty and effectiveness of administration in the cause of service rather than personal gain, now therefore

The Faculty Council of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill expresses its deep and sincere gratitude to President C. D. Spangler, Jr., for his distinctive and essential contributions as President of The University of North Carolina from 1986 to 1997.

4/15/97