Marshal Terry Rhodes

Dear UNC Faculty Colleagues:

We write to remind you to join us for the joyous events of Commencement Weekend 2017 on Saturday, May 13 and Sunday, May 14.

BROOKE BALDWIN

Our students' accomplishments are remarkable, and their friends and families value our roles as teachers, mentors and scholars. Commencement honors our collective commitment to learning and building a sense of community within our University. You're invited to participate in both events wearing academic regalia, but you are welcome regardless.

Doctoral Hooding

The Doctoral Hooding ceremony will take place on Saturday, May 13, at 9:30 a.m. in the Dean E. Smith Center. During the ceremony, each graduate will be called to the stage to receive the doctoral hood from his or her advisor. The featured speaker is Carolina alumnus, Dr. Richard Lenski, John Hannah Distinguished Professor of Microbial Ecology at Michigan State University.

Non-hooding faculty members who wish to march in the academic processional should arrive at the Smith Center (Entrance D) no later than 9:00 a.m. and gather in the Press Room on the lower level (take elevators or stairs down to the first floor). Marshals will direct you to the line-up site. Parking will be available in all the lots around the Smith Center. Please RSVP to have your name added to the parking lists.
