

Resolution 1998-10. To Request a Study of Introducing Mediation into the Faculty Conflict Resolution Process.

The Faculty Council resolves:

The Faculty Grievance Committee is requested to study the feasibility of introducing mediation by trained mediators into the conflict resolution process regarding issues currently handled by the Faculty Grievance Committee and to report its recommendations to the Faculty Council.

October 9, 1998