

Resolution 2002-3. On Faculty Representation on the Board of Trustees

WHEREAS the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill has a long and great tradition of consultative governance; and

WHEREAS the members of the faculty have an important long-term interest in the well-being and future direction of the University; and

WHEREAS the members of the faculty devote their intellectual energies to the teaching, scholarship, and service that enable the University to carry out its mission to the State; and

WHEREAS the members of the faculty have valuable perspectives, information, and insight that will be beneficial to sound governance and deliberation;

THEREFORE, be it resolved:

The Faculty Council calls upon the Board of Trustees of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill to provide for a seat and voice on the Board of Trustees for the Chair of the Faculty.
