To the Faculty Senate of the University of Virginia,

The Faculty Executive Committee of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, acting on behalf of the General Faculty and Faculty Council, strongly and unanimously expresses its concern at the threat to collegiality and shared governance in the academy by the apparently irregular manner in which the Board of Visitors of the University of Virginia secured the forced resignation of President Teresa Sullivan. The Faculty Executive Committee wishes to convey to our colleagues at the University of Virginia our support of and admiration for the actions of your Faculty Senate and General Faculty Council in this matter.

Sincerely Yours,

Jan Boxill
