

ARCHIBALD KIMBROUGH DAVIS

Archibald Kimbrough Davis, of Winston-Salem, has richly fulfilled his promise when a student at this University. His achievements in the banking profession have won distinctive recognition locally as Chairman of the Board of Wachovia Bank and Trust Company, and nationally as Vice President of the United States Chamber of Commerce, and President of the American Bankers Association. As trustee of this University and other educational institutions, as influential leader in the Research Triangle Foundation, as State Senator, and as active layman in the Moravian Church, he has ably demonstrated his fruitful commitment to public service. The University of North Carolina is pleased to honor this distinguished alumnus with the degree of Doctor of Laws.
