

HAROLD WAYLAND TRIBBLE, A. B. of the University of Richmond, M. A. of the University of Louisville, Ph. D. of the University of Edinburgh, Master and Doctor of Theology of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, recipient of honorary degrees from three institutions, President of Wake Forest College.
Author and editor of widely acclaimed books in the field of religion, for twenty-two years professor at the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, and for three years president of Andover-Newton Theological Seminary, he brings to his position a wealth of experience and a devoted leadership which augurs well for the intellectual and religious life of this state. Able, energetic and deeply spiritual, he has successfully pursued to fruition the plans for Greater Wake Forest which are now being realized in the construction under way at the New Winston-Salem campus.
This sister university is pleased to bestow on him this mark of our esteem. (For the degree of Doctor of Laws.)

June 2, 1952, Commencement