

WILLIAM THOMAS SANGER, A. B. Bridgewater College; M. A. University of Indiana; Ph.D. Clark University, Doctor of Laws of Hampden-Sydney and the University of Richmond, Doctor of Humanities of Bridgewater, President of the Medical College of Virginia, he has long served his state and section as an educational statesman and leader. Trained in psychology he later joined the staff of the Virginia State Board of Education and by his wisdom and far-seeing policies became an authority on means of improving educational opportunities in this section. Author of many articles and reports on hospital and health organizations, he was invited to serve as Chairman of the National Committee which surveyed Medical Education in North Carolina. He helped write the Charter for North Carolina's medical care program which will culminate in the great hospital now taking form on this campus. ~~The University and the State owe a debt of gratitude~~

For his wisdom and educational statesmanship, the University and the state owe ^{him} a debt of gratitude.

By vote of the Faculty and the Trustees of the University of North Carolina we confer upon you the degree of Doctor of Laws.

June 5, 1950