

Paul Fulton

Doctor of Laws

Paul Fulton is a 1957 graduate of UNC with a degree in Business Administration. He is the nonexecutive chairman of the board of Bassett Furniture Industries Inc. and its former chairman and CEO. He served as dean of the Kenan-Flagler Business School from 1993-97. He co-chaired the Carolina First campaign, served on Carolina's Board of Trustees and the UNC Board of Governors, and founded Citizens for Higher Education to promote education in North Carolina. He is a member of the Kenan Institute Trustees and Kenan-Flagler's Board of Visitors. Fulton is a generous supporter of a number of areas at Carolina including the Business School.