

Resolution 2018-4. On Maintaining Campus Autonomy in Managing Programs for Diversity and Inclusion.

The Faculty Executive Committee, acting on behalf of Faculty Council, resolves:

We strongly endorse Faculty Assembly Resolution 2018-1, “On Diversity and Inclusion,” and respectfully urge the Board of Governors to continue allowing each campus, including UNC-Chapel Hill, maximum autonomy in managing its programs for diversity and inclusion.

Submitted by the Faculty Assembly Delegation.

Date: February 23, 2018

Resolution 2018-1 On Diversity and Inclusion

Whereas, That which makes the UNC System a unique and a world-class Higher Education institution is the diversity of its campuses with different missions to serve different populations in the state; and

Whereas, Diversity and Inclusion programs and personnel are critical to student success, and

Whereas, Diversity and Inclusion is essential to the economic growth of industry and securing jobs for an educated citizenry, and

Whereas, Diversity and Inclusion programs are necessary for meeting the Strategic Goal of “Closing the Gap;”

Resolve, That decisions on what Diversity and Inclusion programs to offer and personnel required to sustain these programs be entirely managed at the individual campuses.

Respectfully submitted by:

Gabriel Lugo

Gabriel Lugo, PhD

Chair of UNC Faculty Assembly

UNCW Department of Mathematics and statistics

2017-18 Executive Committee

G. Lugo UNCW, Chair
D. Green NCCU, Chair-Elect
K. Cogdell Grainger NCCU, Secretary
T. Ives UNC-CH, Vice-Chair
R. Barrett NCCU, HMI Caucus Chair
J. Martin NCSU, Parliamentarian

F. Parker NCSU, 5 delegate Caucus
J. Pursuit UNCW, 4 delegate Caucus
K. Tran FSU, 3 delegate Caucus
A. Powell NCSSM, 2 delegate Caucus
A. Banks, NCSU, At-large
L. Dohse, UNCA, At-large
