Report prepared by: Jan Hannig (Chair of the UNC-CH delegation) 1/10/2021

Committee charge:

- (a) The delegation of the General Faculty to the Faculty Assembly of The University of North Carolina is composed of four members elected by the voting faculty and the chair of the faculty or the chair's designee. The chair of the faculty designates the chair of the delegation. The Committee on University Government may amend the provisions of this paragraph with respect to the number of members of the delegation when required by a change in the number of members of the Faculty Assembly apportioned to the University. Such amendments are reported promptly to the secretary of the faculty and by him or her to the General Faculty.
- (b) The delegation represents the faculty of the University at the Faculty Assembly of The University of North Carolina and reports to the Faculty Council on matters of interest relating to the Faculty Assembly and actions taken by that body. [Entire § 4-12 recodified February 19, 2016.]

Role of the Faculty Assembly (FA)

- a. Advise – the UNC System President and informally the Board of Governors (Bog)
- b. Advocate – for faculty in partnership with the staff and on behalf of our students

2021 Activities:

1. The UNC-CH delegation met prior to each assembly meeting to discuss how to best represent UNC-CH.

2. The delegation has actively participated in the assembly meetings (remote on zoom). The minutes for the meetings can be found at <https://www.northcarolina.edu/leadership-and-governance/councils-and-working-groups/faculty-assembly/meeting-minutes-and-notes/>
3. The delegation has participated in their assigned committees. For example:
 - a.* Delegate Womack participated in communications. This committee just successfully launched the online Journal of Digital Education Innovations, to be sponsored through the UNCG library.
 - b.* Delegate Hannig participated in the Governance/Strategic Planning Committee that produced a minor revision of the code of Faculty Assembly.
 - c.* Delegate Dewitya participated in the Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion Committee that is evaluating DEI as it relates to the promotion and tenure process locally and at the system level.

Recommendations for actions by Faculty Council: None
