Report prepared by: Jan Hannig (Chair of the UNC CH delegation) 4/12/2024

Committee charge:

- (a) The delegation of the General Faculty to the Faculty Assembly of The University of North Carolina is composed of four members elected by the voting faculty and the chair of the faculty or the chair's designee. The chair of the faculty designates the chair of the delegation. The Committee on University Government may amend the provisions of this paragraph with respect to the number of members of the delegation when required by a change in the number of members of the Faculty Assembly apportioned to the University. Such amendments are reported promptly to the secretary of the faculty and by him or her to the General Faculty.
- (b) The delegation represents the faculty of the University at the Faculty Assembly of The University of North Carolina and reports to the Faculty Council on matters of interest relating to the Faculty Assembly and actions taken by that body. [Entire § 4-12 recodified February 19, 2016.]

Role of the Faculty Assembly (FA)

- a. Advise – the UNC System President and informally the Board of Governors (BOG)
- b. Advocate – for faculty in partnership with the staff and on behalf of our students

Faculty Assembly Delegation Activities:

1. The UNC-CH delegation meets prior to each assembly meeting (remotely on Zoom) to discuss how to best represent UNC CH at the upcoming meeting.

2. The delegation has actively participated (attendance as well as discussion engagement) in the assembly meetings (mostly remote on Zoom).
3. The delegation has participated in their assigned committees.
4. The committee has worked with the chair of the faculty to collect important information on topics like educational policy, faculty workload, and tenure and promotion to be included in the assembly reports to the Board of Governors.

Recommendations for actions by Faculty Council: None
